A. LIST OF INSTALLATIONS AND POINTS OF INTEREST:

1. See [] Sketch of the Central Section of Kalininskoye []

25X1

Pt. 1. Field, flat, sandy terrain extending 10 km. along RR, Pt. 4, and 10 km. along road to Sosnovka, Pt. 54. Used as airfield by two single-engined monoplanes (Two Seater, "Kukuruzniki" - corn hoppers). Field had small wooden building 5 x 5 m. which had a wind-sock mounted on a pole beside it.

Pt. 2. Kara Balty Rivulet, dry most of the year. Only had water during snow thaws in surrounding mountains, at which time the Rivulet flowed north. Ten kilometers south of Kalininskoye stream was tapped by Kolkhozes for irrigation purposes.

Pt. 3. Railroad Bridge; /See [] sketch of Bridge showing dimensions and construction details. / 25X1

Pt. 4. Railroad, single track (track width approx. two meters). Was called "Turksib Vost'maya Distantsiya" (Turkestan-Siberia Eighth Section). Rails were of light load type (eight centimeter rails). Only steam engines "Shchuk", "Ovechka" and "Np Series" used this line. When trains were long or cargo was heavy two locomotives joined to pull the load. [] two-axle, 16-20 tn. boxcars; 25X1 four-axle 50 tn. boxcars, coal hopper cars, refrigerater cars.

25X1

Line was under constant maintenance. Telegraph poles were 50 m. apart along the south side of railroad. [See Encl. 3 for appearance and description of these poles.] Goods brought into Kalininskoye on this RR were: construction material, coal, agricultural machinery, fuel and oil, automobiles. Main freight exported from city was sugar, glycerine, alcohol, cereals.

25X1

Pt. 5. Railroad bridge, [See Encl. 4 for description and construction details.]

Pt. 6. Railroad to Sosnovka. Constructed 1952-53 by MVD-guarded penal laborers. Tracks were laid down to Sosnovka

25X1

Pt. 7. Road, six meters wide, crown-type, gravel, under improvement. Used mainly by vehicles from vehicle base, Pt. 15.

Pt. 8. Railroad Spur, same construction details as Pt. 4, served grain collection storage, Pt. 9.

Pt. 9. Grain Collection Storage. Kolkhozes delivered grain norms there. All six buildings shown on Encl. #1 were constructed of wood, each was approx. 100 x 10 x 7 m.; roofs were sheet metal, gabled. One building had scales for weighing grain.

Pt. 10. Hay Storage Area, 300 x 300 m., enclosed in barbed wire.

Pt. 11. Verkhnyaya Pochtovaya Street, six meters wide, gravel; no sidewalks, no drainage. Street was constructed in 1953, led to workers settlement, Pt. 18, bore traffic of construction project vehicle base, Pt. 15. Street was flanked by seven by seven by five meter adobe-type thatched roof dwellings.

Pt. 12. Dzhambula Street, constructed 1953. Same dimensions and details as Pt. 11.

Pt. 13. Mikoyan Street, built 1953. Same dimensions and construction details as Pt. 11.

Pt. 14. Storage of construction materials; mainly logs and lumber were stored here. The storage occupied approx. 500 m. perimeter area as shown on Encl. #1.

Pt. 15. Construction Project vehicle base. Area 150-200 m. parked approx. 300 vehicles. [Vehicles were property of project called "Pochtovyy Yashchik" ("post office box").] [See Pt. 4 above.]

25X1

Most truck drivers were locally recruited. Seventy per cent of trucks were dump trucks (samo-svaly). [Vehicle base was already built in 1952.] Base was electrically illuminated. Trucks were refueled in area. Two buildings, located as shown on Encl. 1, were on premises. The larger building, 40 x 15 x 6 m., single story, brick, was an office. The smaller building was a wooden canteen, 15 x 10 x 5 m. where "Pochtovyy Yashchik" employees bought their rations.

- Pt. 16. Lumber Yard, area 200 x 150 m., enclosed by board fence. Contained one office building, 50 x 15 x 5 m., white, stuccoed, tile roof.
- Pt. 17. Sugar Combine. Occupied area 1,200 x 1,000 m., surrounded by stone wall. Factory processed locally grown sugar beets, produced sugar, alcohol, and glycerine. Estimated labor force: 2,500. Large armed plant militia guarded premises; there was much stealing of sugar, spirits, and coal by local population.
- A. Scale house, 30 x 15 x 5 m., single story, stuccoed. Sugar beets were weighed there. Building had scales on both sides.
 - B. Sugar beet open storage area.
 - C. Scale house, same details as A.
 - D. RR scale house, 100 x 20 x 10 m., single story, brick stuccoed, curved sheet iron roof.
 - E. Railroad Spur.
 - F. Limestone Processing Plant: 100 x 100 x 5 m., stuccoed, sheet iron roof. Two 35 m. conical towers surmounted building. Coal stoves were charged by conveyor hoppers through top of towers as shown on [] sketch, Encl. #5. 25X1
 - G. Main Sugar Processing Plant, 200 x 100 x 20 m., brick and stone, curved sheet iron roof with monitor partition in center (glass panes along sides).
 - H. Glycerine and Spirits Plant, 150 x 120 x 20 m., stuccoed brick, monitor roof. Products were shipped by railroad [] in tank (cistern) cars. 25X1
 - I. Polyclinic. Four small, brick, stuccoed buildings, sheet iron roofs, each 30 x 20 x 7 m. Area surrounded by clay wall.
 - J. Gate. Entrance to plant area. Factory guards checked documents; permits were required to enter premises.
 - K. Administrative Building. 200 x 10 x 6 m., single story, stuccoed, sheet iron roof. Contained the plant management.
 - L. Sugar storage building, 200 x 25 x 15 m., stuccoed brick, curved sheet iron roof (corrugated).
 - M. Plant smithy, 50 x 15 x 7 m., single story, stuccoed brick, flat sheet iron roof.
 - N. Slag piles, coal and lime residue.
- Pt. 18. Sugar combine workers settlement. [] 400 single-story, 7 x 7 x 5 m., adobe-type, thatched-roof dwellings. Very few homes had electrical illumination. 25X1
- Pt. 19. Bazaarnaya Street, gravel, six meters, drainage ditches along sides. No illumination. Adobe-type homes seven by seven by five meters on east, open area on west.
- Pt. 20. Fire station, 40 x 8 x 5 m., single story, brick, sheet metal shed roof. Housed three hand-operated water pump fire engines. Forty firemen. Fires were usually reported by phone.

There were no document checks at the station. In April-May 1953, MVD brought daily from 50 to 100 penal laborers by truck to lay down two additional tracks at RR station (station had only five tracks prior to this).
- Pt. 63. Petroleum storage, 200 x 150 m. area contained approximately 15 cylindrical tanks (5 m. diameter, 10 m. high, iron) which stored benzine, kerosine, (negroine-benzine and oil mixture for tractors) and oil for vehicles. Base supplied fuel and lubricants for entire Kalininskoye Region.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

2. Population: [] present population of Kalininskoye at 25X1
50,000 - 70% Russians and Ukrainians, 30% Kirghiz (indigenous element), Uzbeks, Chinese, Karachayevtsy and Checheno-Ingushi. (During 1945-1946, MVD brought last two peoples in two RR trains of 50 cars each for resettlement in Kalininskoye area. [] 3,000 were 25X1 brought in then. The Karachayevtsy people are mainly sheep herders and live outside of Kalininskoye in the mountains).
3. Street numbering system in Kalininskoye: Along streets running N-S, homes were numbered uneven on the east side of the street - even numbers along the west side. One kilometer of street usually had about 50 homes to a side. The majority of dwellings were adobe-type.
4. Climatic conditions: 270 days out of a year were generally very sunny and windless. Rainfall was rare after May. Winters were short - November to March. People often walked around in shirts in January.
5. Water Facilities: City had no underground water piping. Population drew water from 15 m. deep wells which were located on most town streets.
6. Troops in town: [] only MVD troops in town who confined 25X1 themselves mostly to places of public entertainment such as the clubhouse at Pt. 23.
7. [] 25X1
8. Living Conditions: Inhabitants were keenly dissatisfied with living standards, would be "eternally grateful to anybody who would put water and electricity in their homes."
